

EQUALIS NAMED STATE FINALIST IN THE 2006 NSW STATE TRAINING AWARDS

Equalis was named a State Finalist in the category of "Small Training Provider of the Year", in the 2006 NSW State Training Awards, which were held at Darling Harbour Convention Centre in September last year. This ranked us in the top 3 training providers in NSW last year.

We at Equalis are very proud of this achievement as it validates our commitment to the provision of quality training and our dedication to continue to improve our services.

In 2005, Equalis won a Champion of Champions Small Business Award for "Best Regional Small Business".

We hope to continue being recognised throughout 2007 for the high quality of training we provide in the Community Services Sector.

Specialist Short Courses for the Home and Community Care Sector

Equalis has developed a range of short courses applicable to the HACC sector. We have achieved this as a result of the many opportunities we have had to provide training within this and like sectors. We are committed to ensure that all courses meet the needs of the sector. We at Equalis have invested many resources in the customisation of our training materials. We are pleased to make additions to course material to ensure perfect match with your training needs.
